

Expertise Made for Multicloud

If your company's like most organizations today, you employ some form of hybrid cloud. This means you need a provider that's equally as knowledgeable about the cloud as it is about your on-premises infrastructure.

At ConRes, our roots are in the data center. This enables our experts to combine 55+ years of infrastructure know-how with the latest cloud technologies to deliver solutions at every phase of your cloud journey.

Our Solutions

Leverage dedicated expertise to solve problems and improve operations across your multicloud environment.

Listed below are examples of how organizations often partner with us to meet their cloud goals.

- Deploy public, private and hybrid clouds
- Execute lift and shift migrations
- Move backup/DR to the cloud

- Optimize spend
